

Never heard of HOTCHPOTCH MUSIC FESTIVAL?

"Hotchpotch" means jumble together. It is also a name of a music festival held in Yokohama for everyone regardless of nationality, generation, gender and whether disabled or not. This year, our theme song is "IF YOU'RE HAPPY AND YOU KNOW IT, CLAP YOUR HANDS". Let's jumble together and be happy★

HOTCHPOTCH'S VISION

Our aim is to make a society where nationality, generation and physical differences are seen as a "character" and a society where we can respect everyone's "character". You can also check our website about our activity and about hotchpoch music festival. We hope this music festival will be a good chance to think and forget the boundaries made in your heart.

World music, Japanese instrumental music, wind orchestra, sign language performance, acrobat, Men's cheer dance, acoustic performance, jazz, clown performance and many more will be on stage. There will be a workshop area where everyone can enjoy making handmade instruments, challenge quiz rally, experience riding a wheel chair, experience writing Buddhist sutra and other exciting events!! A food truck with delicious meals & sweets will come too ♪
